

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 3, 2015

CONTACT: Susan Pelter
904-608-0798

EZELL LAW FIRM REOPENS IN JACKSONVILLE
SPECIALIZING IN COMMERCIAL REAL ESTATE, FIRM OFFERS FLAT-FEE PRICING

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. – Local attorney Brenda Ezell has announced the reopening of the Ezell Law Firm, of which she is owner and sole shareholder. “I am pleased to announce that the Ezell Law Firm is once again providing a variety of clients with expertise in commercial real estate and land development, as well as business and probate matters,” Ezell said from her Mandarin office.

Founded in 2009, the Ezell Firm utilizes flat-fee pricing as opposed to traditional hourly billing, offering clients cost certainty along with sophisticated legal services. The firm provides legal representation in all areas of commercial real estate, including purchase and sale, leasing, lending, title insurance, easements and servitudes, covenants and restrictions, homeowners and condominium association law, and representation in matters involving governmental regulation of land development.

The Ezell Law Firm is a certified Women's Business Enterprise (WBE) Business, State of Florida Minority Business Enterprise, Florida Department of Transportation Disadvantaged Business Enterprise and City of Jacksonville Small and Emerging Business (JSEB). Offices are located at 3560 Cardinal Point Drive, Suite 101 in Jacksonville, and more information is available at EzellFirmPA.com.

About Brenda Ezell

An honors graduate of both Jacksonville University and the University of Florida's Levin College of Law, Brenda Ezell has focused exclusively on commercial real estate, land use, zoning and local government law throughout her career. With experience honed in the real estate department of Rogers Towers, the City of Jacksonville's Office of General Counsel and Edwards Cohen, Ms. Ezell founded the Ezell Law Firm in 2009, re-opening in late 2014 after an eight-month engagement as Senior Counsel to Lewis, Longman & Walker, PA. She continues to be of-counsel to Lewis, Longman & Walker.

In addition to her professional accomplishments, Ezell is an active community trustee. She currently serves as a member of the boards of directors for the Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce, Commercial Real Estate Women (CREW) Jacksonville, Clearly Jacksonville, and the Mandarin Museum & Historical Society. She is also a member of the board of governors of Jacksonville University's Public Policy Institute. A member of the CREW Network, National Association of Bond Lawyers, the Jacksonville and American Bar Associations and the Executive Council of the Florida Bar's Real Property Probate and Trust Law Section, she is a graduate of Leadership Jacksonville (Class of 2012) and the Florida Bar Leadership Academy (Class I). She was named a “Woman of Influence” by the Jacksonville Business Journal in 2011.